JUDGMENT

Petitioner seeks indulgence of this Court to interfere with the activities of a Trust which is involved in civil litigations as also proceedings before the Government following Ext.P4 judgment. It will be open to the petitioner to move the competent civil courts where litigations are pending for any interim arrangement and such court will consider such petition in accordance with law awaiting the decision of the Government following Ext.P4 judgment. By virtue of this judgment, the civil court will be entitled to consider such interlocutory application dehors the pendency of the matter before the Government.

Writ Petition is disposed of in the above terms.

Thottathil B.Radhakrishnan,
Judge.
